

Sarah Winnemucca: Life of a Paiute Lesson 2

Across

[1] Camp McDermitt is just north of the Nevada border in this state

[3] Having no ink, Sarah had to pen a reply to Captain Jerome with this animal's blood.

[5] The _____ wires were cut by the bannocks so communication between the army forces Camp McDermitt and Camp Harney was halted. This pre-telephone technology used a system of dots and dashes

[6] A person put in charge of an agency

[7] Sarah wanted to travel east to this city to see the President.

[9] America's "big father"

Down

[2] a supposed "safe zone", land reserved for natives where they were supposed to live and farm were known as "Indian _____" or "Indian Agencies"

[4] Chief _____ Horn was the leader of the natives fighting in what became known as the "Bannock War".

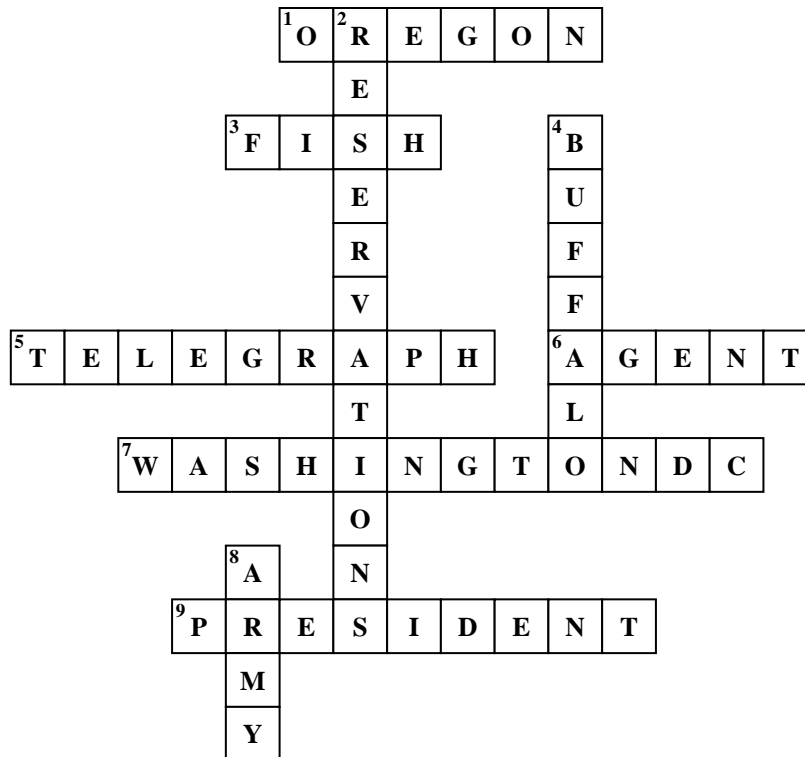

[8] General Howard commanded troops in this US military division

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT
FOR THE HUMANITIES

The program is funded in part by a grant from Nevada Humanities, and the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Solution

Across

[1] Camp McDermitt is just north of the Nevada border in this state

[3] Having no ink, Sarah had to pen a reply to Captain Jerome with this animal's blood.

[5] The _____ wires were cut by the bannocks so communication between the army forces Camp McDermitt and Camp Harney was halted. This pre-telephone technology used a system of dots and dashes

[6] A person put in charge of an agency

[7] Sarah wanted to travel east to this city to see the President.

[9] America's "big father"

Down

[2] a supposed "safe zone", land reserved for natives where they were supposed to live and farm were known as "Indian _____" or "Indian Agencies"

[4] Chief _____ Horn was the leader of the natives fighting in what became known as the "Bannock War".

[8] General Howard commanded troops in this US military division

The program is funded in part by a grant from Nevada Humanities, and the National Endowment for the Humanities.